

The Wallace

Ranjit Singh

With an unwavering sense of destiny, Ranjit Singh conquered the Punjab, an area that today encompasses Pakistan, following a period of anarchy caused by decades of Afghan invasions. By the early 19th century, he emerged as the undisputed Maharaja, establishing the influential Sikh Empire. Ranjit Singh's leadership led to a golden age marked by thriving trade, flourishing arts, and a formidable army.

Inspired by our exhibition Ranjit Singh: Sikh, Warrior, King

Ranjit
Singh

SIKH • WARRIOR • KING

Café

Our special menu has been carefully created to celebrate the major exhibition of the great Sikh leader Maharaja Ranjit Singh (1780–1839)

LIGHT BITES

Vegetable Pakoras (v) £5.75

Lightly spiced Indian savoury snack made of potatoes, onion, cabbage, spinach and peas served with cucumber raita and tomato & mint sauce.

Vegetable Samosas (vg) £5.25

Pastry triangles filled with potatoes, onions, peas and carrots served with tamarind and mint chutney.

Chana Chaat (v) £9.75

White chickpea salad mixed with cherry tomatoes, cucumber, green chilli, lime and fresh coriander garnished with crispy sev, tamarind chutney and fresh yoghurt.

Roasted Spicy Broad Beans (vg) £5.00

MAINS

(available between 12:00-14:00 only)

Mutton Beliram £22.75

Long-simmering lamb marinated with Indian spices, tomatoes, onions, chillies and yoghurt served with cumin rice, garlic and coriander naan bread, poppadum, cucumber raita and mixed Indian-style pickle.

Punjabi Saag and Makki Roti (v) £17.25

A medley of fresh greens delicately cooked with tomatoes, onions, garlic and green chilli served with authentic homemade corn bread, cumin rice, poppadum, cucumber raita and mixed Indian-style pickle.

SWEETS

Ladoo – 3 pieces (vg) £5.25

Authentic Indian sweet delicacy, made with coconut, pistachio, almonds, lime and maple syrup.

Mango Kulfi (v) £6.50

Sweet creamy frozen dessert made with mango, cardamom and sweetened milk served with mango coulis and pistachio crumbs.

BEVERAGES

Masala Chai £3.30

Black tea infused with Indian spices, traditionally enjoyed with milk and sugar.

Mango Lassi (v) £4.50

Thick mango-flavoured yoghurt drink served cold.