

The Wallace

Ranjit Singh

With an unwavering sense of destiny, Ranjit Singh conquered the Punjab, an area that today encompasses Pakistan, following a period of anarchy caused by decades of Afghan invasions. By the early 19th century, he emerged as the undisputed Maharaja, establishing the influential Sikh Empire. Ranjit Singh's leadership led to a golden age marked by thriving trade, flourishing arts, and a formidable army.

Inspired by our exhibition Ranjit Singh: Sikh, Warrior, King

Ranjit
Singh

SIKH • WARRIOR • KING

Restaurant

Our special menu has been carefully created to celebrate the major exhibition of the great Sikh leader Maharaja Ranjit Singh (1780–1839)

2 COURSES £26

3 COURSES £30

STARTER

Chana Chaat (v)

White chickpea salad mixed with cherry tomatoes, cucumber, green chilli, lime and fresh coriander garnished with crispy sev, tamarind chutney and fresh yoghurt.

Chicken Tikka

Chicken cubes marinated in Indian style tikka spices served with mixed leaf salad, tamarind and mint chutney.

DESSERT

Ladoo – 3 pieces (vg)

Authentic Indian sweet delicacy, made with coconut, pistachio, almonds, lime and maple syrup.

Mango Kulfi (v)

Sweet creamy frozen dessert made with mango, cardamom and sweetened milk served with mango coulis and pistachio crumbs.

MAIN

Mutton Beliram

Long-simmering lamb marinated with Indian spices, tomatoes, onions, chillies and yoghurt served with cumin rice, garlic and coriander naan bread, poppadum, cucumber raita and mixed Indian-style pickle.

Punjabi Saag and Makki Roti (v)

A medley of fresh greens delicately cooked with tomatoes, onions, garlic and green chilli served with authentic homemade corn bread, cumin rice, poppadum, cucumber raita and mixed Indian-style pickle.

SUPPLEMENT BEVERAGES

Masala Chai £3.30

Black tea infused with Indian spices, traditionally enjoyed with milk and sugar.

Mango Lassi (v) £4.50

Thick mango-flavoured yoghurt drink served cold.